

STOCK MARKET LESS ACTIVE IN ALL ITS LINES

Business Was Lighter and Marrower and Reflected the Confused Financial Conditions in the Country.

NEW YORK, April 1.—The stock market reflected mixed, confused conditions, which have been recent characteristics. Business was lighter and narrower than yesterday, the second session, but activity and strength was again most pronounced in railway issues of secondary importance, chiefly Rock Island and Erie. Automobile and special issues. Former leaders of the transcontinental group, U. S. steel and Americanized were under pressure but there was some improvement later. The lowest prices were in the final hour. Rock Island made a net loss of 7 1/2 points. New York Central showed a net increase of $345,000. Pennsylvania's income east and west of Philadelphia increased $528,000 and $415,000 respectively. Total sales of stocks were $41,000 shares. Bonds were irregular. Total sales per value $5,645,000. U. S. Coupon 7 1/2 declined 1/8 percent on call.

BOSTON, April 1.—With a holiday approaching, speculation much reduced today, but prices were well sustained and there seems to be no loss of confidence. General list closed unchanged to a fraction above yesterday. We look for the bull market to continue indefinitely with occasional small reactions. The upward move is substantial in the bond and foreign industrial financial and political conditions.

Total sales New York $68,400. In the early hour Verde Extension slightly softer with good demand at fractionally lower levels. New Verde held firm with only moderate of firmness around 7 1/2. Wolverine Arizona quoted at 13-8 1/2 with no offer. All markets closed tomorrow. Good Friday.

DOG WHO DUG MASTER FROM EXPLODED TRENCH ALLOWED AT LATER'S BEDSIDE

This French sergeant was practically buried alive when the Germans destroyed a trench by blowing it up to a mine. He was saved by his faithful dog, who succeeded in digging away the earth until he uncovered the sergeant. Not being able through pure exhaustion to dig any further, the dog sat there and howled until help came. The heroic rescue of the sergeant was allowed to remain with the wounded man in the hospital, the one exception made to the general rule of "No Dogs Allowed."

IMPERIAL SALE MADE TO C. & A. ATTORNEY

GOSSIP ASKS IF THIS MEANS THAT COMPANY IS NOW OWNER OF PROPERTY

Tuesday, April 1.—That the C. & A. Copper company is the real purchaser of the properties of the Imperial Copper company, sold at public auction Wednesday, is suspected by mining men familiar with the situation. H. Herford, who bought in the three lots at the minimum valuation, in the name of Leo Goldschmidt, is attorney for the C. & A.

The sale by Receiver, Mr. P. F. Brown, took place at noon in the steps of the courthouse. It had been several times postponed. The notice of sale was read by S. M. Franklin, attorney for the receiver.

Mr. Herford declined to explain the significance of the sale saying that he was not at liberty so to do. Mr. Franklin declined to say anything about it, although apparently well advised. Mr. Goldschmidt is in bed.

The sale is subject to confirmation by the superior court. Within ten days thereafter the purchaser must pay the price in full.

The sale was ordered to satisfy a mortgage for $2,000,000 held by the Bankers Trust company.

The mortgage was on seventy-eight claims, patented and unpatented, in both Pinal and Pima counties; eight millsites, the plant, fixtures, machinery and appliances on these claims and six $500 shares of the Arizona Southern railroad, and 8,000 shares of stock of the Southern Arizona Smelting company and other property.

The property was divided into three separate lots or parcels. No. 1 included the shares of stock of the two subsidiary companies; No. 2 the property situated in Pinal county; and No. 3 the property situated in Pima county.

The minimum bid was as follows: No. 1, $12,000; No. 2, $2,000; No. 3, $20,000, the three aggregating $34,000.

Goldschmidt was the only bidder.

NOTED POACHER WINS MEDAL FOR BRAVERY

BERLIN, April 1.—One of the most noted poachers of Upper Bavaria has just hung the Iron Cross on his breast. His name is Muehlberger, and his home is at Prien on Lake Chiem, where he earned his living ostensibly by making shoes, really by shooting deer in the forests in the mountains. Finally a reward of $100 was offered for his arrest. He disappeared but when the war broke out re-appeared and joined his regiment. No questions were asked. The superior marksmanship that he acquired as poacher has stood him in good stead as a soldier. Recently the Germans were preparing to storm a French trench. A certain number of men was detailed to carry big steel shields to protect the storming troops from the French bullets; and a number of sharpshooters wanted to pick off the French who might show their heads above their trench. Muehlberger volunteered for this latter service on the ground that he was a poacher and not a big shot. When the attack came off he was assigned this position; in one of the German trenches. He found, however, that the protection above the trench interfered with his aim; so he climbed up and stood on top of them, where the French bullets whizzed thick and fast about him. Here he did effective work. According to Dr.

THREE WOMEN LIVED IN WAR PROOF HOUSE

BARRICADED THEMSELVES IN HOUSE AFTER STORING IT WITH PROVISIONS

AMSTERDAM, April 1.—Austrian papers received here tell how three women who had chosen to liberate through the war have been discovered by the Prussian police hidden away in a strongly barricaded house in that city.

The chief of police recently received a letter from a resident in the Konviktstrasse stating that the widow Betty Stoll, together with her two daughters, had been murdered.

The writer of the letter on being interrogated, said that for many weeks no one had been seen to leave the house, the windows shutters of which remained closed all the time.

A number of constables, under the leadership of the commissary of police, were thereupon dispatched to the premises.

No answer being forthcoming to their repeated knocking, the door was forced open by a locksmith.

In the front room an elaborate bar, wardrobe, perfume boxes, chairs and even a piano filled the apartment literally from the floor to ceiling. The police having with difficulty made a clearing in this artificial jungle, pushed forward to the inner room.

Here in three beds placed side by side, lay the three "murdered" women. On seeing the intruders, the three, in an angry chorus, shouted to the police chief, "Clear out all of you; clear out, and quick, too! Leave us in peace."

"For the last two months we have lived here barricaded because we don't wish to hear anything whatever about the war. It sickens us to hear about it. We are in need of nothing. We have provisions in plenty."

In the adjoining room the police found a store of provisions sufficient to last another six months.

Having a Bavarian staff surgeon, he shot down the Frenchman during the fight. He was wounded slightly but he was not only the Iron Cross but the gold medal for bravery.

ARMY RATIONS LOOKED GOOD TO CORRESPONDENTS.

BRITISH-GERMAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, April 1.—A picture that will linger in the memory of the newspapermen who visited the front as guests of the British staff, was the sight of the army rations, in all their variety, laid out for inspection on a hotel table, and looking not unlike a study of the contents of a larder by a Dutch painter.

There was beef and mutton, a pound of each (the fresh meat ration is one pound). There were large tins of pressed beef which vary the fresh meat or are taken when fresh cannot be got. There was a two pound loaf of excellent bread and the alternative ration of black. The biscuits, according to the soldiers, are a vast improvement on the South American ones. There are fresh vegetables, including onions; these were soaked and jammed, which the English soldier is particularly fond of, and by way of luxuries fifty cigarettes and two ounces of tobacco. This quantity of cigarettes and tobacco is served out weekly.

There is besides a ration of sugar.

ONLY SIXTEEN, GIRL VERY SICK

Tells How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."

—Miss AMELIA JAQUILLARD, 8961 Tehouptoulas St., New Orleans, La.

St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because I was troubled with suppression and had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked like a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them." —Miss ESTHER A. MAGUIRE, 119 Thwing St., St. Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

excellent bacon, cheese, butter, were possible and a bottle of army rum. The rum ration is two ounces daily, a rather nice quantity. Apart from the daily issue of rations, every man carried his "iron" or emergency ration, of beef and biscuits, which he must not touch till he has been 24 hours without food.

MOTHER! IS CHILD'S STOMACH SOUR, SICK?

If tongue is coated or if cramps, feverish constipation give "California Syrup of Figs."

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't sleep or eat naturally, has constipation, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the food waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and your baby is well and playful child again.

Children love this harmless "Fruit Laxative" and mothers can rest easy after giving it because it never fails to make their little "toddies" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy. Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow but not the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back your contentment any other is a trap.
